Initial Submittal Information: All submittals must be complete, meet all applicable requirements, and be received by the published deadlines. Any deviation may result in the submittal being excluded from agenda consideration. All materials should be submitted to the Community Development Department.

Resubmittal Information: Resubmittals must include a detailed response letter addressing all departmental review comments. Failure to fully address all staff comments may result in the item being removed from the Planning Commission agenda. All resubmittal materials should be submitted to the Community Development Department.

Final Comments: Staff will review each project and submit comments to the Community Development Department, which will then distribute them to the applicant according to the schedule above. It is the applicant’s responsibility to respond to all final comments by 12:00 p.m. (noon) on the Wednesday preceding the Planning Commission meeting.
